

It is very important for me to be able to test cell phones at the store in order to see if it will be compatible with my cochlear implant. Many phones can cause interference that would prohibit me from being able to hear on the phone.